

How did you meet Rep. von Elingher

We were in the East Wing hallway on the Anniversary of the Idaho State Police and he had a box of cookies in the shape of Idaho, a tractor, & hay. I commented that [REDACTED] would have loved those cookies and he handed them to me saying I could have them. I said I was going back to my office and he showed desire to follow me back. He wanted to get to know more about me personally so he asked questions and we chatted about [REDACTED] and jobs.

Mentioned something about Oreos – can we get a little more information about this (to the extent there is)

When he parked in front of his apartment, I thought he was just going to run into grab the permit, but instead he came around to my side of the car, opened the door and reached out for me to come with him. He said something like, “come on I have some Oreos.” When we got in his apartment, there were Oreos on his dining room table. I remember eating the Oreos in his apartment while sitting on the chair in the living room.

The Rep. stated that there was no alcohol during dinner – did he consume alcohol at the apartment

I don't recall him drinking in front of me. We did not drink at dinner.

Comments attributed to [REDACTED] (If she was here for the interview, I was simply going to ask: did you review those with your attorneys and do you have a response to that)

I did not tell him that [REDACTED] gave me money or bought me lunch, etc. and [REDACTED] has never done so. In fact, I have no specific recollection of ever interacting with [REDACTED]. In talking about other legislators that evening at dinner I must have told him that I thought of “[REDACTED]” when I see [REDACTED] because that is true. I never told him “[REDACTED] would love to be where you are right now.” I feel that he is trying to turn other legislators against me by planting an idea that I said things about them.

His statements related to recreational drug use

The statements attributed to [REDACTED] about drug use are wholly irrelevant to the conduct at hand and are a gratuitous attempt by Rep. von Elingher to tarnish her reputation and intimidate her. In fact, they accuse her of criminal conduct including having large quantities of marijuana at her house, so large it could garner felony charges. As such, counsel has instructed [REDACTED] not to respond to these allegations.

The context of the big cuddly teddy bear statement

I did tell him at some point in the evening that he reminded me of a teddy bear. My comment was made in the context of trying to convey to him that I felt safe with him and trusted him and appreciated how nice he had been to me before the assault. Being disrespected by someone you trust like that is very disturbing.
