

Main Street Idaho is a group of involved in-state legislators who are committed to common-sense conservative principles related to economic, agriculture, education, business, and environmental policies that support safe communities.

THE PATH TO PRINCIPLED CONSERVATISM RUNS DIRECTLY THROUGH MAIN STREET IDAHO.

WE BELIEVE IN

We believe in governing in a thoughtful and solution-oriented manner. We are committed to supporting small business owners, fostering economic and individual prosperity, and delivering real results for the citizens of Idaho.

OUR PRINCIPLES

Support comprehensive tax reform that will simplify the code, lower rates, and make it easier for businesses to grow and create jobs.

Support regulatory reform that will reduce the burden on businesses and consumers.

Support policies that will promote the development of energy that Idaho is uniquely strong in, including Idaho's nuclear reactors.

Support policies that will expand trade and open new markets for Idaho goods and services.

Support policies that will keep our state safe.

2023

- Build relationships with other legislators, business leaders, and community members.
- Conduct research and develop policy proposals.
- Begin advocating for Main Street Idaho's policies in the legislature and the public square.

2024

- Continue to build relationships and advocate for its policies.
  - Introduce and support legislation that reflects its principles.
- Hold the executive branch accountable to ensure responsible governance.
- Educate the public about Main Street Idaho's principles and the importance of limited government, individual liberty, and free markets.

